MISSOURI PUBLIC TRANSIT ASSOCIATION

The Missouri Public Transit Association (MPTA) was established in 1980 to provide a unified voice for public and specialized transportation providers in Missouri and to work toward elevating the status of public transit as a priority. Thirty-six years later we continue to work to ensure transit has a voice in this state.

MPTA transit provider members provide more than 67 million rides almost everywhere for everybody every day in Missouri, and they employ thousands in our communities. The MPTA mission values personal mobility as a basic quality of life by promoting access to public transit services.

The facts show investment in transit increases access to jobs, education and healthcare; creates development opportunities and jobs; and provides reinvestment in the disadvantaged areas of our state. According to the American Public Transit Association, for every dollar invested in transit projects there is a $4 return for the state.

“Without OATS, it would be difficult for my wife to get her regular dialysis treatments. She depends on transit, and I depend on her.”

“I just got a promotion, my dream job in a pediatric neo-natal care unit. I depend on transit, and the kids depend on me.”

“If I didn't have access to public transit, I wouldn't be able to make it to my college classes, and my future depends on it.”

Moving transit forward in 2017, MPTA Goals include:

- * Elevate the status of transit in Missouri.
- * Build new coalitions to expand advocacy base.
- * Promote and support MPTA members.

KIMBERLY CELLA - EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Kimberly Cella is at the helm of the nationally recognized non-profit advocacy organization, Citizens for Modern Transit, whose mission is to establish and expand an integrated, affordable and convenient public transportation system throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area. In 2015,

Cella was selected to serve as the new executive director of the Missouri Public Transit Association (MPTA). She and her team at Citizens for Modern Transit have partnered with Michael G. Winter Consultants to lead efforts on behalf of the statewide transit provider association to elevate the status of transit in Missouri, build new coalitions to expand the advocacy base, and promote and support MPTA members.

Cella has been working at Citizens for Modern Transit for more than 23 years, during which time she has successfully secured millions in federal and private funding for transit advocacy and education. She has been nationally recognized for her efforts by the Federal Transit Administration and the Environmental Protection Agency. In 2016, WTS named her Woman of the Year in Transportation. She was appointed to the St. Louis County Public Transportation Commission in 2012, and is on the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council Air Quality Committee and the St. Louis Regional Clean Air Partnership's Advisory Committee.

LISA CAGLE - PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Lisa L. Cagle advocates for improved investment in and commitment to public transportation throughout the State of Missouri in her role as Program Director of MPTA, and for expanded and improved transit in the St. Louis region as the Program Director for Citizens for Modern Transit (CMT). Her work focuses on educating the community on the benefits of transit at the individual, regional, and state levels. Cagle spearheads innovative transit ridership incentive programs, including the Try and Ride program which, over the past 2 years, has attracted over 3500 new riders in the St. Louis region to try the Metro system for their work commute.

She also focuses on educational programs like the Ten Toe Express program, which teaches seniors to use transit to improve their health and increase their independence through transit-centered guided walking tours. Cagle aims to provide transit providers across the State of Missouri with information and tools to help them attract investment in transit in their region, and to inform their constituents about the vital need for and benefits of transit in their communities.
